346 402 Fig. 24 of 105

A technical drawing of a double-walled tube assembly. The outer tube has a hatched pattern and is labeled with the number 100 and an arrow pointing to its left end. The inner tube is also hatched and is labeled with the number 105. A bracket labeled 'Fig. 24 B' groups both tubes. Below the tubes, two small square components are shown, each with a diagonal line through it, indicating they are not to be connected. The entire assembly is labeled with the number 396.
